Students Tell of Views on War Efforts

COOPERATION OF HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS
By Frank Savstrom

The greatest complaint one hears these days about the war effort is the complacency of the American people. It is alleged, and perhaps correctly, that some feel they must not alter their way of life because of the current situation.

As you have heard, almost every department in the high school is lending its hand to the furthering of the war effort. A great many students are taking part in these activities, but many are not, either because of work or because they are not personally suited to the program.

Yet it is felt that every student should take the proper attitude toward the situation. The isolationist theory, once rampant, is deeply rooted in many Americans. As we, as a nation, felt at one time that we could ignore the war, many feel they can do this as individuals. Now there is an honest endeavor to eradicate this erroneous belief.

At our high school awareness of the democratic tradition of open discussion has always been stressed. Students are encouraged to listen to such radio programs as "The Town Meeting of the Air," and to take part in discussion groups in their social studies.

Without proper knowledge, one's morale, of which we hear much these days, is endangered. To counteract this, leading headlines of the day are posted on the bulletin boards, and current events are correlated with some English and social studies courses. The spreading of false rumors, of course, is much discouraged.

The sale of defense stamps is a part of the war program of the high school. Many students did not see the necessity for this, but lately larger percentages buy defense stamps each week. This change of attitude has resulted largely through efforts made by some to show the wisdom of this type of saving.

The war situation had caused a necessity for a tightening of schedule and an emphasis on practicality. Yet the so-called "culture" courses, valuable at a time like this as a psycological escape, have not been diminished in number.

Now there is a need to know definitely for what this country is fighting and what are the American ideals. Many students have had the privilege of seeing such works as the documentary film, "The River," and hearing reading of the play, "The Land Is Bright," by Edna Ferber. By these and other ways, young people are realizing more sharply the goals of war and peace of America.

It is true that my generation has always had "a good time." We have enjoyed many privileges, and much has been ours. Now it is our responsibility to cooperate, and in the case of many, assist materially in winning the war. Like any other class of people, we cannot make this adjustment over night. But I believe the ideal attitude is being effectively impressed upon the students and the difficulties obstructing the war effort are being surely overcome.

"The Scarecrow Creeps" Will be Real Thriller

"The Scarecrow Creeps," a three act comedy, mystery-thriller, will be presented on the evening of May 15 at the Campbell Grammar school auditorium. Proceeds are to be placed in the General War Fund to be used in community war work as needed.

The Footlighters are producing the play under the capable direction of Mrs. Robert Weaver. The Country Woman's club is acting as sponsors.

The cast of characters and roles are Bud Levenberg as the butler; Merle Knappen, the maid; LBen Howard as Roderick Gage, the master of Gage Manor; Robert Weaver, Dr. Kenneth Gage, Roderick's nephew; Alma Leverton, the negro cook; John McLeod, her son, Trailing Arbutus; Elfrieda Anderson, Annabelle Gage; Clinton Liles as Perry Gage, her son; Miss Florence Smith as Miss Amelia Gage, Roderick's first cousin; and Estelle McDonell, her niece, Norma Gage.

A musical program is being arranged to precede the opening curtain. There will be no in-between curtain entertainment as time will not allow.

Mrs. W. F. Grattan is in charge of ticket sales. Tickets may be purchased from any member of The Footlighters or the Country Woman's club.

Have an evening of fun and entertainment and still help a worthy cause! The proceeds from this affair are to be used to benefit Campbell. Do not miss "The Scarecrow Creeps." Time: 8 o'clock at the grammar school auditorium.

Local Student Heads Symposium

Miss Liberata Ruscigno of Campbell headed the weekly San Jose State college symposium last week on the subject "Consumers' Co-operatives."

Miss Ruscigno introduced speakers for formal talks on the topic, and then presided over the regular symposium of 13 members of the college debate squads.

STUDENTS' AWARENESS OF THE COUNTRY'S SITUATION
By Winona Beach

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands—one nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

On December 8, the students of Campbell Union High school pledged themselves with more sincerity and spirit than they had for many years. They were aware of the fact that the United States had entered into the world conflict. It took but a few days to

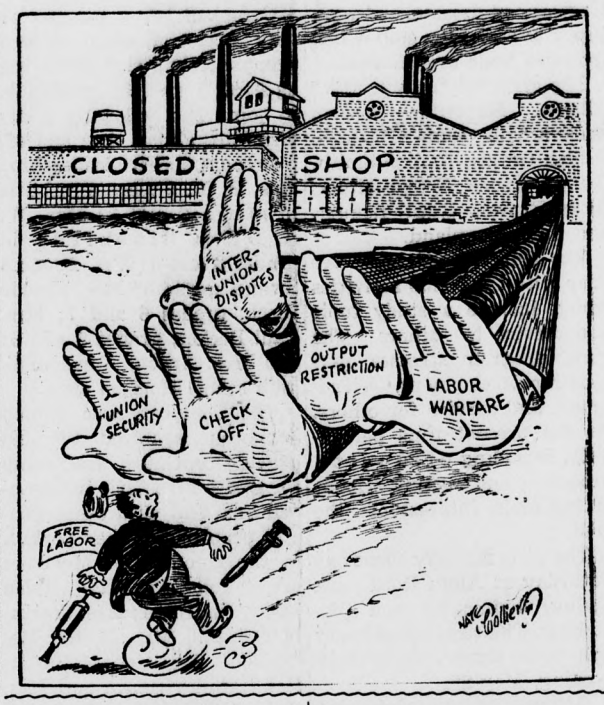
THE GLAD HAND



Women Mend Army Blankets

The special call for workers to meet Wednesday afternoon to mend army blankets, met with such a wonderful response that the entire allotment of 50 was all completed, so that the meeting announced for Friday will not be held, Mrs. Ray Wood, chairman, has announced.

She was so delighted over the cooperation for completion of this order which was a rush one for the army that a public acknowledgment seemed fitting. She expects much more work to be asked of the women as we get deeper and deeper into the war, and bespeaks continued support.

High School PTA Meets Wednesday

The Campbell Union High School P.-T. A. will meet for the last meeting of this school year on Wednesday afternoon at 2 p. m. in the Little Theater.

The high school faculty will be the hosts of the afternoon, and the annual "question box" will arouse many interesting discussions. Questions handed in to the faculty about school activities or subjects will be answered by the teachers.

Are you salvaging "scrap" materials? Bring all contributions to the P.-T. A. meeting where there will be appropriate boxes for leaving newspapers, magazines, papers, bottles, metal scraps of all kinds, and tin cans. The cans should be flattened. Campbell in an all-out campaign for victory, is salvaging, and each citizen can help!

Mrs. Carl Field, president, will have a meeting of the executive board of the unit at the high school on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Keith, mother of Ross Trowbridge went to Yuba City Tuesday for a visit at the Trowbridge ranch. She was accompanied by Charlie Lewis, who was a guest for the trip.

Dr. Atkinson Is Guest Speaker at Kiwanis Meeting

Dr. Earl Atkinson, head of the commercial department at the San Jose State college gave a very informative talk at the Tuesday meeting of the Kiwanis club, emphasizing the trend of the courses in his department toward fitting graduates to enter the various fields of commercial activity. He stated that there is need for further work even in college along the line of the 3 R's.

Lowell Benson was the presiding officer during the program hour presenting the speaker, and also the musicians, Russell Wolfram and Carl Sorensen, duo violinists and piano accompanist, Robert Wheeler, all students of Campbell High school.

Next Tuesday A. A. Thielke will present the Campbell Grammar school orchestra in a program.

Methodist Church To Sponsor Movies

The Methodist church is sponsoring "One Foot In Heaven," starring Frederic March and Martha Scott, in a special matinee at the Campbell theater on the afternoon of Monday, May 11, at 3:30 p. m. Shorts and news begin at 3:15.

The theater has been rented for the matinee production so that the full admission fee goes to the church after that expense is paid. For the evening showings on Monday and Tuesday the church will receive a percentage of the sales by presentation of their cards or tickets. Admission prices are as usual, the matinee the same as the evening.

This play, based on the book of the same name has proved very popular and received wide acclaim.

Attendance at the matinee, if possible, is requested by the church.

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Enos of Hamilton avenue, a son, David Charles, April 30 at San Jose hospital.

A MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY
WASHINGTON

May 1, 1942

TO THE PEOPLE OF CALIFORNIA:

This week a new campaign for the sale of War Bonds and Savings Stamps is under way throughout the Nation. It is the War Bond Quota Campaign.

It is urgently necessary that you double the rate at which you are now buying War Bonds and Stamps. This will mean the sale direct to individual Americans of War Bonds and Stamps to the amount of not less than one billion dollars every month.

One billion dollars a month is the National quota. It is equal to one-tenth the combined incomes of all Americans.

This money is needed to buy the tools of war for your fighting forces. It will not pay for all of them. Our war expenditures now are at the rate of about FOUR BILLIONS a month, and they are growing daily. But a billion dollars a month direct from the people will make all-out production possible. Without it we cannot do our best; without it we cannot put forth our full effort.

It is desperately needed for another reason. We can't fight a war and at the same time live and spend as usual. There are not enough goods to go around -- the things we buy with money. If we go on spending at the 1941 scale, we'll be robbing the fighting man to add to our own comfort or pleasure. We'll be driving up the cost of living for all of us. We'll be imposing dire hardships on our neighbors.

What is asked of you is ten per cent of your earnings -- a tithe for Liberty. It is not a tax; it is not even a contribution; it is a loan at interest, for your use and protection later.

Your Government asks you to cut down your expenditures, TO SAVE -- your boys on the firing line and in the training camps, through your Government, ask you to save so that they may have what they need to win YOUR WAR for you -- America asks you to save; to SAVE TO WIN THE WAR; to buy War Bonds and Stamps up to not less then ten per cent of your income.

Is Liberty worth it? Is Democracy worth it? Is America worth it? I think I know your answer.

Sincerely,

H. Morgenthau Jr.

The above letter was sent to this newspaper by Secretary Morgenthau in Washington. We publish it in the interest of the War Bond Quota Campaign and earnestly recommend that all our readers do their share in the tremendous job ahead of financing the War effort.

MOTHER'S DAY

Mother's Day—is it a day of gift-giving only, a day for the sending of flowers, a box of candy, a telegram greeting or letter?

Or is it also a day of recognition for the devotion sacrifice of millions of mothers, a day of humble tribute to the abiding faith which gave time, care and affection to all of us without hope of reward?

Today, there is added significance in this day, as the nation gives special homage to all those mothers who, bravely and unflinchingly, have given sons to fight in their country's cause.

We can, of course, let Sunday, May 10, slide by unheeded. There will doubtless be some who will. They will call it "a lot of sentiment," forgetting the sentiments of kindiness and thoughfulness—when lavished upon them!—were always accepted, perhaps taken for granted. Theirs is the loss if they cannot see that a token of gratitude or remembrance on this day will bring happiness both to the donor and she who receives it, that the eyes of her whom they know so well will shine with pride and gladness that they didn't forget.

Whatever the token—if you're hard-pressed in deciding on one, why not defense stamps or a bond?—she'll be proud that you remembered on Mother's Day.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT

Over in Honolulu the other day, up popped the following letter in the mail of Admiral Chester William Nimitz: "Dear Sir, I wish to join the Navy. We've got something the Japs ain't got. We'll win. We'll win!" To the writer, David New of Kansas City, Mo., the Admiral sent his warm appreciation of such determination, and added, "It is unfortunate you are only eight years old and we are unable to use your services." However, there's nothing the matter with the applicant's fighting spirit. America can always put plenty of that to good use!

THE BOOK MARK

by marty

"The Children" by Nina Federova.

Be honest with yourselves. Did you or did you not enjoy Nina Fedorova's prize winning novel of a couple years ago entitled "The Family?" I am being truthful with myself when I say that I failed to reach the appreciation point in the book before I became bored with the whole thing and quit reading. Since I have been so bold as to make such a frank statement about a book that merited $10,000 as a prize no less than six people have come forth with as definite and decided an opinion.

BUT, and I must emphasize the word with big letters, do believe me when I state that Nina Fedorova's second novel "The Children" that has only recently been published, held my interest all the way through the book. I found it to be, in a sense, a re-entry ticket for the author into the field of novel writing for the sake of interest—human interest — and thrilling suspense. Yes, there is plenty of suspense in this book. Of course, if you did read and enjoy "The Family" or if on the other hand you just read it, you will be glad that you did when you start reading "The Children" for the author brings forward many of the same characters from "The Family."

You will meet Lida of the beautiful voice and gay, childlike temperament. Granny of "The Family" is dead now, and mother has given up the profitless attempt to make a living by keeping boarders and has a poor paying job in a hospital. Dima has been adopted and taken to England "by a rich English woman." Vladimir is playing in a wild night club in Shanghai. Glafira is falling in love and so on. Even Dog is heard from again in this book.

I don't quite know whether it is the book itself—its simplicity and sincerity — or whether it is that I have become better acquainted with the life and happenings of the people in China today through newspapers and magazines and books that has made me appreciate and thoroughly enjoy "The Children."

Baldwins Plan to Attend Reunion

On May 12, gasoline rationing, etc., permitting the D. H. Baldwins will leave on a two weeks vacation trip. The official board granted the vacation at this time in order to permit the minister and his family to join their relatives in a family reunion in Tacoma, Washington.

Rev. Baldwin will meet his parents in Tacoma, they themselves journeying to the coast from their Montana home. Others, brothers and sisters, and aunts and uncles of the Baldwins live in and near Tacoma. One of Rev. Baldwin's brothers will be completing his work at Willamette University at Salem, Oregon in June.

The Baldwins will return on or about May 30. He will be in the pulpit as usual on May 31.

Supplying the pulpit on the two Sundays involved in the vacation plans are Dr. "Ted" Palmquist on May 17 and the Rev. H. E. Milnes of Berkeley on May 24. The fine average attendance of recent weeks will be a fitting tribute to these oustanding preachers.

Official U. S. Treasury War Bond Quotas For May

The above map of California shows the War Bond quotas, by counties, for the month of May, 1942. Total War Bond quota for the State is $40,011,100. Every income earner in the State is expected to step-up War Bond purchases on a basis of ten per cent or more of income. This is necessary to help America's armed forces take the offensive against the Axis powers. The American voluntary method of War Bond purchases must be successful in reaching the quotas set by the Treasury Department for every county in the nation. The job of every American now is to stop spending and save dollars to help win the War.

Campbell Union high school will lose 36 and Campbell Grammar school 42.

County Superintendent Britton stated that county schools do not expect to lose much, if any, state school money this year because of this loss of attendance.

"We expect to get an emergency average daily attendance rating for Japanese children withdrawn just as we get an adjustment on average daily attendance in case of an epidemic," he explained.

realize that we would have to face changes; that we would have to do something to help democracy win through to "final victory and peace."

Th first way in which we could aid would be to comply with the Army's requests. This would mean curtailing all night activities. It eliminated open house night during Public School week and all dances and sports events will take place in the afternoon.

Another way we are helping is in avoiding the use of tires. Bicycles and shoe leather are coming into their own now, because students, and even the faculty, are beginning to realize that cars are not to be taken for granted any more. Interscholastic sports were discontinued because of the rubber situation. Class and club trips were cancelled — government orders were to use the buses for direct school trips only.

War regulations have also affected our summer vacation plans. Those seniors who intend to work as soon as they leave school, upon being asked what they intend to do, reply, "Take civil service, naturally," instead of the familiar, "Oh, I don't know. Guess I'll look for a job." Those students who intend to carry on through college and the under classmen will be drafted into cannery and packing house work. Those who are too young for that will probably cut apricots or pick prunes. But one thing is certain—there will be no long pleasure trips.

You might wonder if this is all we are doing. It definitely is not. Defense stamps are being sold. Students are given the opportunity to buy if they can; they aren't forced to do so. The agricultural classes have planted Victory gardens which are coming along nicely. At the beginning of the year, a few of the commercial girls were asked to help with F. B. I. work, such as typing the personal data sheets and the identification cards of the different civilian defense officers of Campbell. They gladly acquiesced, because they realized the government's need of them.

Perhaps you have read about the airplane models that school boys are building for Navy experimentation. Our boys, too, do this, pleased and proud to do something for their country.

Some students and faculty members have regular shifts at the observation post during which they watch for any aircraft in this region and report directly to San Francisco. This is a real job, because the students must give up class time, and then make this time up from their own free time.

The hygiene class has taken charge of the Junior Red Cross here, obtaining almost a 100 per cent enrollment of the student body. To receive a membership card, a student has to contribute just two cents to the Red Cross fund, but many gave much more than this. The girls in the sewing classes are making garments for the Red Cross, and the shop boys are making twenty-five cots. The hygiene girls also sent Christmas gifts and Valentines to the boys who were ill at Moffett Field. On May 9, the president and secretary of the group are planning to attend a conference at Sacramento, and they will doubtless come back with still more ideas for helping the Red Cross.

You may also have heard of the Student Defense corps organized within the school, which consists of 35 boys from the three upper classes. Their captain is Jack Smith whose adviser is Coach Hudson. These boys have helped distribute sand to the community to use for extinguishing incendiary fires, and they are also working with the P.-T. A. in its salvage drive. About one-half of them have completed the first aid course being given at the school, and four have completed advance courses. Each one has a shift at the observation post. They are the emergency fire department for the school during school hours. This means that if an emergency arises, they have to get all the students out of the buildings as quickly as possible and extinguish any fires which may break out.

I was speaking to Jack the other day and he said they are expecting orders for blackout duties. This will mean helping with the emergency hospital here in Campbell and acting as messengers.

All these things which the students are doing don't reap them any personal gain; they receive only the honor of helping their country. They are working to keep the Star Spangled Banner waving over a country where all the people can pledge allegiance to a flag which means happiness, instead of pledging themselves to a man who signifies slavery.

PHYSICAL TRAINING IN CAMPBELL HIGH SCHOOL
By Al Porter

In the days before the war broke out with the Axis, and our own Pearl Harbor was bombed, about fifty per cent of the young men of our nation were being rejected in the draft as physically unfit for active war service. this, in what was supposedly, one of the healthiest of nations. Whether we are at war or peace why should not the young men and women of our nation be physically fit? The schools of this county are aware that they could be doing more than they have in the past. Our coaches at our school have realized this and were the first to start an extensive training program, designed to physically fit boys and girls for the struggle that is before them.

Unfortunately, before this new plan was put into effect, only a very small minority of students were getting the proper physical training to fit them for the service to their country that is needed today. Now, however, every individual is being given the opportunity to build up a normal healthy body.

In order to carry out this plan a number of changes in the athletic program were necessary. The first change was in the intramural program. Students now indulge in mass calisthenics, whereas before they merely donned uniforms and were given freedom as to the type of game they wished to play. Other students, who partook of interscholastic sports, were put through intensive training programs, and they are the men in the world today who are leaders in physical health.

The second change took place in the interscholastic program. In an effort to conserve much needed rubber and gasoline, the prinicpals of the various high schools in the valley decided to relinquish all inter-school sports. In place of this an intramural program is being conducted. Participants are learning to compete with themselves rather than form a definite part of a team. Consequently more students are being given the chance to compete instead of a selected few. Students will be awarded just as they have in the past, with the traditional letter. However, the letter, or block, has been drastically changed. The block will be made entirely of felt, instead of chenille as it was in the past.

The whole sports program is therefore based upon two main ideas. One is to conserve and the other is to prepare. Students will be fitted for the war that is at hand and after the war to carry on the magnificent work of the democratic builders before them.

State Militia Enrollment Starts

Men between the ages of 16 and 65 who can meet the requirements for membership in the State Militia may enroll at once at the recruiting center, San Jose Chamber of Commerce, civic auditorium, San Jose, John B. Schneider, representing the University of California agricultural extension service said today.

Particularly wanted for the militia are men from the farms and ranches who own hunting rifles and shotguns and are skilled marksmen. Firearms and ammunition are to be furnished at the expense of the volunteers, who also will be expected to purchase a simple uniform of a type to be determined later. This uniform will be worn whenever the volunteers engage in military duties with the militia. They will train on their own time and without compensation.

Dr. Schneider called attention to the fact that Governor Olson has issued a proclamation stating "I do hereby pledge and promise that in no event will this volunteer militia be called by me for active duty away from the county in which they are enrolled and that they will be used only in event of enemy attack or invasion."

In case of enlistment or induction into the army or navy, any volunteer will immediately be released from obligation for duty in the militia. The term of duty in the militia is for the duration of the war and automatically expires as soon as the federal government proclaims that the state of war has ended.

To qualify for membership in the militia, volunteers must be citizens of the United States or of one of the United Nations.

In his absence Mrs. Benson will be in charge of the store.
